Suicide of a New Orleans Murderer.

The suicide of the condemned murderer. Eugene Pepe, at New Orleans, is creating a good deal of excitement in that city. It is said that previous to his death, Pepe was very violent in his denunciations of the American party, and certain of its leaders, in whose interest, it is alleged, he had acted for a long time. In his confession, says the True Delta, he states that there were in the American party hundreds of murderers worse than he was. His denunciation of the American party in general, and in this connection, of Bob Johnson, alias McNeil, in particular, was about as bitter as it

The same paper says that the opinion of the community is tolerably equally divided on three points: first, that Pepe committed suicide: second, that the poison, if such there was, was unknown to Pepe, and was administered to him from interested motives, as it was currently rumored that he intendin relation to the assassination of Abe Phil- Franks. lips, and other Know Nothing deeds of blood and violence, that would compromise many parties in New Orleans, who at present carry rather a high head; and third, that Eugene Pepe is not dead, but alive and kicking-the inquest farce, and the harried manner of carrying off his supposed remains, giving color to the latter phase of public opinion.

TEF TRIBUTE OF RESPECT .- At a meeting of the members of the Washington Bar and Officers of the Court, held in the Criminal Court Room, on Tuesday morning, June 26th, Joseph H. Bradley, esq., was called to the chair, and William B. Dayton chosen Secretary.

They feel it to be a general loss, a diffusive grief of the community in which for many years he lived and successfully practiced, rather than any peculiar grief of attached and devoted friends. The fresh emotions caused by his death leave no room for eulogy. His eulogy is deeply spoken in these emotions, and lives in every heart. This meeting, therefore, contines itself to such demonstrations of respect to his memory as are more immediately demanded by the character of the deceased, and the general regrets which his death has occasioned. The New York weekly statement of bank averages is more favorable than could have been anticipated after the considerable specie drain of the previous week. The specie reserve shows a loss of only three quarters of a million, while a Calithe bank vaults. Boston and Philadelphia are both indebted to New York, and specie in moderate quantities is coming from the interior. The loan line shows a small expansion, and the deposits a decrease of nearly a million.

LOCAL ITEMS.

A HANDSOME BUILDING .- King street in the neighborhood of Royal, has within late years, been almost completely metamorpho sed. The small frame tenements that served the purposes of business in that section of the city for half a century, have given place to elegant and commodious edifices, which in style and beauty vie with the establishments of any city in the Commonwealth, and add much to the appearance of the

Among the improvements in that locality, Mr. Wm. Arnold has had the frame house which recently adjoined the establishment of R. H. Miller, Son & Co., replaced by a elegant brick store, and Daguerrean Saloon.

The new building is some 22 feet front, and extends back about 60 feet. The lower story front is of handsome ornamental woodwork, and exhibits two doors, and the same number of windows. The windows which are very large, will each be arranged with a single plate of glass, whilst the doors, handsomely carved and painted, will add much to the appearance of the establishment .-The upper stories, two in number, are ornamented by pressed brick cornices, and lighted by three arched windows each-the wintrames sanded in imitation of stone. The whole building is topped by a heavy and imposing, yet very neat cornice, which gives it a handsome finish. The roof is partially gravelled, and the remainder sheeted with tin.

The eastern door of the lower story admits to a spacious store, which, when fitted up, will prove one of the handsomest establishments in the city, and will be occupied by Mr. Lewis Buar. The western door opens upon a wide stairway, leading to the upper stories. Upon the second floor has been arranged with special view to the wants of the is spacious, well lighted and airy. Imme-1860. diately in the rear, is a neat Ladies' dressing room, dark rooms for the storing of chemicals, and a room admitting only the peculiar light required for some of the manipulations of the Photographic art. In the rear of the building, and furnished with a fine skylight, is the operating room of the establishment. Altogether, for neatness, convenience, and completeness of arrangement, we have seen no where in the country an establishment better fitted to the purposes for which it is designed. Mr. N. S. Bennett will occupy this portion of the building.

The third story, approached by the stairway we have mentioned, is a large, well lighted, and finely finished room, well fitted for almost any business requiring an upper room. The building, under the hands of our skillful mechanics, is almost completed, and will soon be ready for occupancy.

The building is from a design of W. B. Price, Architect, and owes its fine appearance to the handywork of Messrs. Samuel Reed, bricklayer; Delahay & Kemp, joiners; Hammerdinger & Taylor, plasterers; John Rudd, painter and glazier; and Isaac Kell,

A. L. AND H. R. R.—The Londoun Mirror says:-"The vicinity of the depot of the A. L. and H. Rail Road presents quite a lively appearance just now. The loading and Schrs, Home, Young, and Mary and Hattie, unleading of freight, arrival and departure of passengers, which so far have been quite numerous-the leveling of the grounds, and the busy strokes of the workmen employed on the depot building, give to that end of town a decidedly business air. VESTER KNOWN. TT IS A WELL KNOWN FACT, THAT I there is no work incident to the Farmer's duties, more laborious and toilsome, than that of raking or forking off the sheaves, from ordinary Reaping Machines, and none other than hearty, obust men, with vigorous constitutions, can endure and perform it properly. There is no necessity of referring to this matter at length, as every owner of an ordinary Reaper will acknowledge this to be the truth. On the commencement of Harvest, the question does not arise as to "who may perform the Raker's part?" but on the contrary, which one of the number has the ability and manly strength, and will consent to do it? that is the question to be settled. Compare for one moment the difference:—The DORSEY MACHINE needs but a teamster, other machines a man to rake off the wheat, and also a driver to attend the horses. Now the man who will undertake to "rake off," cannot be a small man, otherwise he will lack the physical power to to this work allotted, then, of course, his weight may deem necessary and proper for that sudded to the draught of the machine, and the orses compelled to draw this extra weight over soft ground-and after all this additional waste of time and labor, his work is but imperfectly performed-let him be ever so skillful in the manage ment of his rake or fork, he cannot deliver a neat sheaf, or fail to scatter the Straw-On the other and, DORSEY'S MACHINE, (as before stated,) requires only a good driver, the balance of the work is done, and done perfect by the Machine.

The Grain is cut at the rate of sixteen acres duty, a Horse Rake to glean would be useless. | 000 in treasure on freight, besides 450 pas Contrast the difference, and judge accordingly. Among the recent improvements, I have substiuted malleable iron guards for cast ones.

The Knives, back blade and eye, are of steel The shape of the blade has also been remodeled and improved. A Self-Adjustible Lever throws the whole Machinery in or out of gear, by a back or forward movement of the Horses, without touching the Lever by hand. The Divider has been improved and strengthened with grain wheel inside, decreasing side draught materially. The Tongues have Double and Single Trees, and Yokes ready to attach the horses.

As a Mower, DORSEY'S MACHINE is second to none other; it will cut as much grass, and as well as any other Machine can do it. The Trackclearer has joints to rise and fall with unequal surfaces, and will clear the track properly. For cutting Clover Seed, this Machine is unsurpassed. The subscriber having been appointed Agent for the above "REAPER and MOWER," is now ready to turnish all those who wish to secure the best combined MACHINE in existence, and dismissing John Thompson, one of the Night | pledges himself to give entire satisfaction, in every JAMES SOWERS.

The location i proverbially healthy, cases of malarious fever being unknown upon it. The tarm contains 650 ACRES, of which abou 250 are woodland, well timbered with oak of ar original growth. The arable land, (em'-racing 70 acres of fertile river bottom, free frem overflow) in a high state of cultivation, being well set in elover and grasses, and finely adapted to wheat, corn, oats, and tobacco. A crop averaging thirty years since, by the late owner. The place is abundantly supplied with springs and water coursesis under good fences, and has on it a thrifty orchard of young and choice fruit trees. Its mineral advantages are deemed attractive; the land lying directly in the range of, and contiguous to the Dam, one mile from the Snicker's Gap Turnpike, most lucrative gold mines of Virginia, and abound- and adjoining the lands of Henson Simpson, ing in extensive beds of iron ore, which, considering Thomas Hoge and others, containing about 340 the facilities of mining it, and the advantages of a fine water power on the place, could be rendered very valuable. The improvements are new, substantial, and conweniently arranged. The DWELLING is of brick, covered with slate, two stories high, with two large parlors, a hall thirtoen feet wide, dining room, five capacious chambers, and a finished basement. The out-houses consist of a large barn, with threshing sheds attached, horse and cow stables, carriage house, negro quarters, &c. It is conceded that this is the most desirable property now in market in the section of the country where it lies, and it will be sold on accommodating terms. The premises may be viewed at any time by persons disposed to purchase, and any communications on the subject may be had at Fredericks-JOHN L. MARYE, JR.,

AUCTION SALES.

VERY VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—As executors of Mrs. Nancy J a decree of the Circuit Court of Alexandria Smith, deceased, and by virtue of directions in County, rendered at November term, 1858, in the her will, we shall, on Monday, the 30th day of dition of the soil, and enclosures, and character of the other improvements, make this estate eminently desirable, besides which, it possesses numerous other and great advantages; among these are the healthiness of the situation, its proximity to the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, being distant only four miles from the nearest Depot, and the excellence of the society in the neighborhood. Persons who desire a most agreeable country residence, and at the same time a most productive farm, should by all means examine this estate .--The Railroad will bring them within the distance of it above mentioned, and a conveyance thence residue in three equal instalments, at 6, 12, and 18 to the place itself will be furnished by Mr. Charles Conner, who now resides upon it, to any person desiring to make such an examination, who will inform him by mail of the day when such person will be at the Rapid Ann Depot, on the aforesaid Railroad. His Post-Office is at Locust Dale, which is one mile distant, in the county of Madison, the Court House of which county is about twelve miles distant, the same being also the distance of Culpeper Court House, while the distance to Orange Court House is about eight miles. Mr. Conner and Messrs. Edward Lightfoot and John

Lightfoot, whose residence is contiguous, will take pleasure in showing the property thoroughly. The terms of the sale will be, one-fourth of the purchase money down, and the residue in three equal annual instalments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with sufficient surety, to the satisfaction of the undersigned, and a deed of trust upon the premises.
